

The easiest way to measure a rounded corner is to use a framing square. Make the tongue and blade parallel with the sides of the spa cover. Note the measurement where the curve starts this is your radius measurement.